The Index to Richard Schellen’s Collection of California Materials, San Mateo County includes over 80,000 citations with multiple page references covering the contents of 62 binders worth of information.

The largest group of binders within this collection, Section 1, are those for Redwood City. Thirty seven binders are divided by business, family, centennial and heritage committees, directories, clubs, block histories and more. A list of the volumes in the San Mateo County collection follows this introduction.

Because we started the indexing of the San Mateo County Schellen’s from copies of the original, there are some irregularities in the numbering. The copied volumes had been divided for ease of handling. The multifaceted numbering on these split volumes was recorded as the indexing began. The earliest split volumes were paginated separately, however, so you will find entries such as vol 43-1, 43-2 and 43-3. As we moved further into the project it became apparent what the numbering meant, and many volumes were paged across the split volumes.

Where the originals were split and numbered individually the volumes in the SMCGS library remain in the same configuration. The volumes in the Redwood City library, however, are not paginated, so it will be necessary to approximate where the entry would be. At some future date, hopefully, someone will put page numbers on the original volumes and make sure any numbering on the second set of copies in the RWC Library match those of the index.

There is one other numbering glitch. Volume 12 has been numbered continuously from volume 11, starting with page 217. They shared a box in the copied set, and again the numbering on the split volumes and boxes caused the confusion. None of the paging problems matter if you are accessing the SMCGS copies, but are important if you are in RWC.

This is a very extensive index. Many of the indexers would have liked to give you more information, such as suggestions for other spellings of names, complete range of years if multiple entries are recorded in a line, and more. The size of the complete project, unfortunately, made this an unnecessary luxury. What you will get is

Titles have been eliminated if there is a given name. When they are used they are placed in [ ].

The only case where you should find a given name and a title is for a married woman when the given name was that of her husband.
Jr. and Sr. have also been eliminated. In the world of genealogy, we find that Jr. often becomes Sr. in his later years. A problem also arises in an index. If added to the surname or the given name it causes those names to sort at the bottom of a list of that name and might in the end cause someone to miss the person they are seeking.

This project was not an abstraction but rather an index. It is meant to direct you to the entry in the Schellens volume. There you can learn more about the person listed. Do be creative in your searches. Although our indexers were very careful, proof-reading all of their own entries, it is possible that they could not decipher Mr. Schellen's sometimes difficult handwriting. Even typewritten entries could be a problem as some keys seemed to cause problems through the years. There is also the possibility that Richard Schellen's made a mistake in his copying. And last but certainly not least is the possibility that the original was incorrect.

This collection was a labor of love on the part of Richard Schellen's. Massive amounts of materials were compiled from a host of sources at a time when copy machines were scarce and expensive. Very few entries are in fact copies in the originals. It is more likely that you would have found an original invoice, postcard or picture. While the Other County collection and the San Francisco collection remain intact, the pictures in the original San Mateo County volumes might have been removed and catalogued separately in the library. Photocopies were placed in the SMCGS volumes.

Many, many thanks go to the indexers involved in this project. Listed by number of entries they include: Cath Trindle, Mary Lou Grunigen, Bob Brown, Lois Lindley, Richard Walker, Jean Ann Lemon, Jan Reilly and Faye Simpson.

Richard Schellens, one of the founding members of the Redwood City Archives Committee, was an accountant by trade and a historian by obsession. His love of the history of San Mateo County and San Francisco has left us with a collection of abstractions that have been organized into binders by the Redwood City Archives Committee. There are 53 volumes (each with 2-3 books) on San Mateo County alone. There are also numerous San Francisco volumes and others for assorted counties throughout the state. The originals of these volumes, which cover the whole county rather than just Redwood City, are housed in the Redwood City Main Library History Room. The San Mateo County Genealogical Society has a complete set of the San Mateo County volumes.

Schellens gathered not only current day information, but he systematically went back through old directories, county histories, great registers, county record books and newspapers, extracting, abstracting, photocopying and indexing the lives of the residents of San Mateo County.

Three volumes of Redwood City real estate transactions include hand drawn maps and references to the deeds in the San Mateo County Official Record books. More than 50 books hold records of Redwood City residents sorted by the main surname of the record. Other volumes are sorted by township, with both current and no longer existent townships being covered.

While the Schellens Collection would seldom be considered as an end source, although there are photocopies of some newspaper items with sufficient documentation, it is a wonderful finding aid for records of tens of thousands of San Mateo County Residents. It should be a first stop for anyone researching ancestors in the county.
